NATIVE COCKTAILS

NATIVE OUR STORIES

A collaborative menu, carefully curated by The Sugar Club team, it's our journey on what New Zealand means to us. "Native" pulls together stories and experiences that shape how we think, how we treat and indeed, how we portray New Zealand. "Nature" is executed with respect and thought towards how we can savour "Our Land" to the best of our ability. We will be delighted to share with you the wider narrative behind each of our creations.

Please enjoy our liquid portrayal of New Zealand

PASTURE

BLOOD OF THE GRAOULLY by Markhus (Fleshy, Vibrant & Fiery)

*The Graouilly is the pagan mythical dragon of Metz. He was known for punishing naughty children and labelled as an all-round bad dragon. We wanted to paint him in a different light: the blood of the Graouilly mixes the idea of his fiery nature, with his slightly sweeter side. After much research we found out he was a sucker for anything to do with plums, we put this alongside some indigenous horopito for fire and shazam.
Delicious Graouilly Blood!*

Eau De Vie - Yellow Plums - Black Doris & Horopito Syrup - Lemon

NAU MAI FIX by Alex (Green, Fragrant, Fresh)

Nau Mai Fix is a welcome to New Zealand. It derives from the first thing that Alex had to drink when she landed in New Zealand. Her Nana prepared soothing Kawakawa tea which relaxed and rejuvenated her after hours of travel. We wanted to recreate this experience so it could be enjoyed over and over

Seedlip Garden - Homestyle Lemonade - Kawakawa & Spearmint

PLATEAU

TIKITERE by Brennen

(Savoury, Warming, Medicinal)

From Banff to Rotorua, the Tikitere is straight out of hells gate! Focusing on local produce high in sulphur content, we have concocted a drink that represents the creation of our land. A combination of cauliflower and soy helps to drive a truly unique deep dive into what we feel could only be described as the flavour of volcanic activity

"Cauli-nac" - Whole Dandelion Tea - Miso - Citrus - Cauliflower Pumice

20

AORAKI by Johan

(Clean, Refined, Elegant)

Based on the Arowhenua tribe story, Aoraki follows the conversion of Man to Mountain. We take botanicals from the local Tekapo basin, spirit from Central Otago and a chilling menthol to represent the cold blast of altitude, recognising the pure beauty of the region and the beliefs behind its creation

Source Gin - Tekapo Vermouth - Mint

20

PICO DEL INDIO by Adel

(Tall, Bright, Herbal)

Pico del Indio is somewhat of a Saviour Tea, to reign true to Adel's experience, we have blended a house yerba tea that mimics the one he had to calm his nerves after climbing to the high altitude city of La Paz. Pisco and fresh citrus help to finish and balance this cleansing and refreshing highball

Plato pisco - Lime - Basecamp Yerba Soda

ROOTS

Spurred by the starting point of all life, we take an in-depth look into how we portray our roots, what they mean to us and their importance in our culture

COASTAL

The Kiwi summer playground, this section plays to the more remote parts of our coasts, from flora and fauna to personal journeys. We look to showcase a taste of our rich childhood that we often take a little too for granted

PLATEAU

We are surrounded by 53 volcanic cones in Auckland, in this section we pay homage to them with situations built on our personal experiences, history and native myths

PASTURE

Fresh, wild and green, we focus on the nectar and bounty we pull from our surroundings, how we interact with them and what keeps them alive

ROOTS

PIT WINE by Stefano
(Funky, Buttery, Umami)

Pitt wine capture the smoke, char and earthiness that is definitively Hāngī we looked to recreate the traditional technique in liquid form using a balance of elements such as fermented corn, Tequila and Charred Cob syrup

Hāngī Corn wine - Smoked Cobs - Plata Tequila - Mezcal

20

HEART OF OAK by Danielle
(Bright, Floral, Sparkling)

Heart of Oak takes on the character of an Ancient New Zealand oak tree (circa 1824) and the folklore that surrounds it, we combine Acorn spiked scotch, local cider and oak resin to create a light, but intriguing spritz

Acorn Scotch - Cider - Resin Gin - Soda

KAMOTE by Maria
(Fresh, Tropical & Rich)

The Kamote tells a tale of family and tradition, we take on the idea of the childhood favourite "Halo-halo" and transform it into a unique pacific potion championing flavours like coconut & humble Kumara

Coconut Rum - Kumara coulis - Creole Bitters - Lemon

COASTAL

BANKS BAY by Pete
(Green, Fleshy, Refreshing)

Banks Bay pays tribute to the first sightings of New Zealand and its rich coastal flora. Joseph Banks was to be the first botanist to document our native plant life and, like the local Māori, was intrigued by the many uses of Harakeke Flax. Banks Bay uses of native flax as the heart that helps us further understand why the Harakeke is often known as the base of Māori cuisine and medicine

Terror Gin - Harakeke Cordial - Lemon - Apricot

BLACKWALL COLLINS by Josh
(Floral, Bitter, Quenching)

The Blackwall Collins is an ode to the historic Cutty Sark, the tea clipper that had many lives from wool delivery to travelling the spice route, also known as one of the quickest clippers of its time. This drink pulls together a tea combination at the centre that helps to showcase what we would have seen carted on the Cutty's deck

Seedlip Grove - 2nd Use Trade Tea - Black Walnut - Old World Tonic

RAIN by Jade
(Sweet, Rich, Dry Finish)

To capture the essence of rain, the aroma and the effect of it on our Nature, we analyse the chemical reaction of rain quenching our earth. The natural chemical created is found in many of our "musty" mosses & resins. To showcase this flavour, we have built this into a whisky and based a classic "Rob Roy" around it

Geosmin Whisky - Amber - Sweet Vermouth - Cacao
